

WIRED MEET THE...

Aged 11-18 & want to find out about the wide range of jobs within sound & music technology? During these online sessions, meet women & minority gender professionals working in the industry; hear what they do & how to progress. Free for girls, young women & non-binary people in Yorkshire.

Singer, Songwriter and Producer: Rivita
Wednesday 19th October 6-7.30pm

After studying Music at BIMM London, Composing for Film & TV at Kingston University & Audio Arts at Syracuse University, Rivita's work has varied from writing & producing her own original music, creating music videos, writing music for picture, performing with Samba Bands & authoring a book about Composition. Originally from India, Rivita is based in LA focusing on writing, releasing & producing music.

 @rivitamusic

Audiovisual Artist: Sonia Killmann
Wednesday 23rd November 6-7.30pm

A multimedia artist who specialises in audiovisual media, Sonia is a saxophone player & electronic musician. With an MA in Composition from the Royal Conservatoire of Scotland, Sonia's practice involves: creating audio-reactive visuals; working with sound & environment through ambient soundscapes & working with dancers and choreographers to explore movement & sound.

 @soniaskillmann_sound

Production Manager: Darryn de la Soul
Wednesday 7th December 6-7.30pm

Founder of Soulsound, Darryn started as a Live Sound Engineer & went on to production manage live events. Darryn has developed training courses & qualifications & is an expert in employability & career development. Soulsound specialises in career management for Live Sound Engineers & other live event technicians, focusing on nurturing young talent.

 @SoulsoundResource

TO REGISTER FOR A FREE PLACE, VISIT <http://yorkshiresoundwomen.eventbrite.com>

Yorkshire Sound Women Network is all about inspiring and enabling women and girls to explore sound and music technology in Yorkshire and beyond. Check out our website for events and resources, and to sign up to our mailing list: www.yorkshiresoundwomen.com

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL ENGLAND

@YorkshireSoundWomen

@YSWN_